Police Nab 3 At Youngstown For Burglary

YOUNGSTOWN — Three alleged safecrackers, were being held in city jail today pending charges of burglary after police Sunday night foiled their attempt to rob the Ohio Bell Telephone Co. which is located across the street from police headquarters.

The men have been identified as Percy Henry Terry, 26, of Charleston, W. Va., a former Ohio Bell employee, and Ralph Burkes, 23, and William Peoples, 30, both of Columbus.

The trio was nabbed at 7:30 p.m. after police were alerted by a burglar alarm.

Police immediately surrounded the building at the corner of Boardman and Phelps and nabbed the men on the first floor as they attempted to flee.

Police had entered the building through a second floor fire escape. When the intruders saw police they ran down to the first floor.

Police said the combination on the office safe had been knocked off. The men carried an electric drill, chisels and other safecracking equipment.

Police also discovered a pistol on one of the men and a rifle in their car parked nearby.

Nothing had been taken from the safe.

Three Drivers Cited After Road Mishaps

No one was injured but three persons arrested in three accidents investigated by the State Highway Patrol on district highways over the weekend.

Patrolmen report that a car driven by Earl F. Johnson, 31, of Alliance struck the rear of a car driven by Robert Knoch of Beloit as he slowed down for traffic on Route 62, one mile east of Alliance, at 5:30 p.m. Sunday.

Johnson was arrested for failure to stop in the assured clear distance.

The driver of a truck-trailer rig escaped injury when his truck jackknifed on Route 14, one tenth of a mile west of the Pennsylvania state line, at 3:20 a.m. this morning. The truck left the road but did not overturn.

The driver, George Johnson, 45, of Morgantown, W. Va., was arrested by the Patrol for reckless driving.

12 Die In Ohio Road Mishaps

Hunting Accidents Are Fatal to Three

By The Associated Press

Ohio's weekend death toll from accidents declined slightly from last week despite a bad beginning appearance of hunting season fatalities, and Sunday night's fog blanket over much of the state.

After an encouraging decline to 13 deaths two weeks ago, the figure shot up to 23 a week ago, with 11 deaths before the first six hours of the 6 p.m.-Friday-to-midnight Sunday survey had elapsed.

For a time, it appeared the same thing might happen this weekend. Five people died Friday night when the car in which they were riding collided with a train at a crossing south of Coshocton. A pedestrian was also struck and killed Friday night.

But, even with three deaths attributed to accidental shootings related to the hunting season, the total did not match last week's.

Including the death of a workman in a trench cave-in and the hunting season shootings, miscellaneous causes took four lives; traffic killed 12 and no deaths were attributed to fire.

As fog moved over most of the state late in the weekend, and apparently caused at least one traffic death, authorities urged motorists to be extra careful with the reduced visibility.

The fatalities:

Friday night

Five Coshcocton County residents—Carl Ames, 22, Fresno and Mrs. Margaret Stiteler, 35; Miss Josephine Stiteler, 18; Miss Phyllis Holder, 17, and Mrs. Bonnie Grace, 29, Rt. 5, all of Coshcocton—when their car collided with a Pennsylvania Railroad passenger train near Coshcocton.

Mrs. Floy Mosteller, 63, Toledo area, hit by a car as she crossed the road in front of her Lucas County home.

Saturday

George H. Melzer, 39, Mason (Warren County), when his car went off a curve, hit the end of a bridge and tipped over in a small creek near U. S. 25 in West Chester (Butler County).

Cecil J. Queen, 42, Lancaster, when a slit trench in which he was laying low in Columbus collapsed.

George W. Willey, 57, Newark, when his son tripped and accidentally shot him while hunting near Washington Court House.

John I. Ovak, 48, Ashtabula, in a head-on collision there.

Miss Mary C. Melody, 74, New Paris, struck and killed by a car

Six Persons Killed As Car Rams Tree

ST. JOHN'S, Mich. (AP)—Six persons died Sunday when their automobile hit a tree while being pursued by a police car.

A police officer said he took up the chase after he noted the car doing about 70 m.p.h. through St. Johns. He estimated the vehicle reached 105 m.p.h. as he pursued it down U.S. 27.

Most of Chrysler's car-making facilities are in Detroit where 50,000 of the workers are employed.

Chrysler said negotiations on the white collar contracts dragged past the others because the union's demands were higher. The UAW claimed greater inequities existed among these workers and further negotiations were necessary.

Chrysler Vice President John D. Leary said the new agreement would provide an increase of $2.53 a week, 3 per cent or whatever is larger, in salaries for the workers, would incorporate part of their cost of living benefits into their base salary, and would institute a new severance pay plan.

The six killed were Robert T. Anderson, 27; his brother, Jack L. Anderson, 19, another brother, Richard Anderson, 34, all of Cincinnati; their aunt, Mrs. Grace Vincent, of Lansing, and her two daughters, 5 years and 18 months. The lone survivor was James Risch, 17, of Rodney, Mich., hospitalized with critical injuries. Police said Risch apparently was a hitchhiker.

Some Favor Compromise

Survey Shows Democrats

Divided on Civil Rights Issue

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democratic state chairmen are nearly equally divided on whether the party should adopt a strong civil rights plank in 1958 or compromise with the South.

This division of sentiment was apparent in replies received from Democratic leaders in 43 states to an Associated Press inquiry.

The survey disclosed some strong support outside the South for dealing with civil rights on a basis which would not drive Dixie members out of the party in a presidential year.

On the other hand, chairmen of 18 states representing 596 of the 1,372 votes cast in the 1956 national convention took a no-compromise stand. They declared for a strong plank even if it means a Southern walkout.

These 18 states included: New Jersey, New York, Connecticut, Massachusetts and Rhode Island in the East; Michigan, Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota, Wisconsin, Iowa, Illinois, Nebraska and Missouri in the Midwest; Colorado, Washington, Oregon and California in the West.

Eleven Southern chairmen were solidly against the party taking any stronger position than it did two years ago, particularly on school integration.

Chairmen of 11 other states, mostly in the Midwest, said the views of Southern delegates should be taken into consideration.

ington and Nevada's Fred Stronsider declined comment. Strosider said National Chairman Paul

M. Butler had instructed party officials not to answer such questions.

Indiana Chairman Charles E. Skiller said he favors a moderate civil rights plank. He suggested it might outline a program of integration starting in the lowest school grades and gradually working up.

Seaborn P. Collins of New Mexico called for a compromise that would satisfy a majority of the delegates. He added that "I would

hate to see a plank that would

cause either the north or south to

break with the party."

There were some statements that the party must strengthen its position on the issue, no matter what the cost in Southern support.

Oregon's David Epps said the Democrats must have a stronger

civil rights plank than the Republicans.

"We have to go farther to retain the North," he said. "No one likes to have a split or lose anyone, but if we have to lose somebody, I'd rather lose the South."

Wisconsin's Patrick J. Lucey

said he doesn't think the South will bolt. But he said "the wiser heads in the South must recognize that the election results this month are a mandate for a stronger stand on civil rights."

The Cleveland Barons and the proach to the problem," he said.

"You can't legislate this sort of thing. If we push it too fast we

Virginia's Thomas H. Blanton

they think the party went far enough in 1956. They indicated they would accept a similar statement.

New Hampshire's J. Murray De-

Arizona Chairman Joseph Wallem of this sort which couldn't be solved if everyone concerned was determined to sit down and solve it . . . I believe the Democratic party is big enough to work it out."

ico called for a compromise that delegates. He added that "I would

hate to see a plank that would

cause either the north or south to

break with the party."

Two years ago, the Democrats committed themselves to "continued efforts to eliminate illegal discrimination of any kind," including that in public education.

They said Supreme Court decisions, such as that outlawing school segregation, are "part of the law of the land." But they rejected the use of force in segregation matters.

Today's child has one smaller worry than his grandfather did—he is less likely to become orphan. One of every four children born at the turn of the century faced the prospect of becoming an orphan before the age of 18. Now the figure is one out of seven.

Always Room For An Opposition

Two conclusions about the Republican party's collapse in the 1958 election seem to be general:

1. The party had no right to expect anything else because it lacked leadership and a sense of purpose.

2. The party has a chance to make a strong comeback, because the Democratic-labor union alliance now in the saddle and riding high will not remain popular forever.

Both conclusions are sound.

But the second one, which looks to the future, needs to be analyzed closely before it is accepted as political gospel.

THERE IS ALWAYS room for an opposition in a country of free opinion and free speech. The Democratic-labor union alliance will generate criticism as it uses and misuses its strength in both houses of Congress, in state legislatures and in governors' mansions.

It will be goaded into frenzied activity as an alliance by the realization that the Democratic party is hopelessly divided on the civil rights issue. Therefore, it must divert public attention from this built-in handicap.

But just because there is room for opposition and a need for opposition does not guarantee that the Republican party as now constituted will be able to capitalize on its chance to make a comeback.

Its best and strongest talking point is going to be prudence in public spending, because the Democratic-labor union alliance is committed strongly to spending more, not less, money.

But it is going to take more than lip service to prudence to convince the American people that Republicans mean what they say. President Eisenhower, on the advice of the people who nominated him in 1952, talked about economy in his first campaign. He had nothing to say about it in his second campaign, however, because he had been unable to do anything about it. If the next Republi-

Turn It the Other Way Around

A Chester, N.Y., businessman has admitted he shot and killed a labor organizer who had tied up his plant with a wildcat strike. The businessman had found out that the organizer had a criminal record. The businessman knew the organizer was trying to steal his employees from the AFL-CIO union that had been representing them. The businessman had obtained a pistol permit, because he was afraid of violence. When his car was followed by the organizer's car, he thought the climax of the altercation had been reached. He fired his revolver in panic when he was approached by the man he feared.

On Your Honor

If you overpark on a downtown Salem street from now on, you can pay your fine by dropping the 25 cent fee into a new type of envelope ticket and slipping it into a courtesy box, one of which will be found in every metered block.

Painted yellow, they'll be easy to locate.

Since few motorists deliberately park overtime, this honor system should meet with favor with the motoring public.

The fact that offstreet parking lots and metered curb stalls are full most of the time attests to the popularity of Salem as a shopping center and the courtesy extended to motorists by permitting them use of an honor system, rather than walk to the police station to pay a fine, ought to prove highly satisfactory.

Once Over

New York attorney general says gangsters have been operating in the brokerage business. If any racketeers are in brokerage houses they are extremely few and unimportant, but it's easy to imagine an encounter with the type:

Racketeer: Welcome, and we can make a lot of money.

Racketeer: Don't get technical.

Customer: I want only a listed stock.

Racketeer: Everything I sell is listed in Cicero, Appalachian, Leavenworth and on all slot machines. How much have you to invest?

Customer: I've little cash.

Racketeer: Turn your wallet over to our Mr. Stickup.

Customer: Who's he?

Racketeer: He's our wallet analyst. He's so quick at figures he can look at a wallet and tell just what's in it for ME.

Customer: One of these stocks you recommend is interesting. Could I see an annual report?

Racketeer: I'll have to take that up with our bakery department.

Customer: Why the bakery?

Racketeer: We have to cook up the report.

Customer: What's with the rumor there are men with criminal records in your office?

Racketeer: It's silly. We haven't a director who isn't well regarded he is out on probation.

Customer: I don't think I'll invest just now.

Racketeer: My analyst has examined your wallet and says you have $26.78. That's enough for a 10-pound bale of one of my Customer (scrapping): That's what I was afraid of!

United States is to put up its own exhibition hall in Moscow for the Russian world fair. We want to give the Soviet a chance to see all the things they will claim to have invented.

Start searching those attics again! Courier & Ives prints brought big money at a recent N.Y. auction, with "Home To Thanksgiving" bringing $2,200.

Cole Brothers and Clyde Beatty circuses have merged. This may mean return of something badly missed: The road touring circus and the circus lot. The old-fashioned circus was a wonderful thing for kids, and juvenile delinquency might get a setback through the spell of "the big top" unloading at the railroad depot, the tent-raising in all open fields, the stirring parade and the big show out under the stars.

Ike shot five ducks on hunting trip. This could hardly cheer him up after missing all those shots at a donkey from the back of an elephant. . . . Outlook for GOP in 1960 is now so gloomy that reaction of any Republican voter to "You may be presidential nominee" is a cry of "Oh, NO-O-O-O!"

Rock 'em Technique

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rock 'em and sock 'em.

That may be the new Communist technique, just as it was Joseph Stalin's, to create crisis after crisis to keep the West jittery, gain a little yardage where the West could be forced into concessions, and make propaganda.

Examples: What's happened at Quemoy and now at Berlin.

Stalin knew the method well, as he showed with the pressure on Greece, Turkey, Iran, at Berlin, in Korea. It was dropped for a while after his death.

So long as they remained, there was a chance of a Middle East shooting war that could become big war with Russia. The Eisenhower administration was anxious to withdraw the troops as soon as gracefully possible.

Before this could be done—and while Mideast tension continued—Russian Premier Khrushchev visited Peiping. Then came the Communist-made crisis. The Red Chinese began shelling Chiang Kai-shek's troops on the island of Quemoy.

Again jitters for American allies. The United States, under this Red pressure, wouldn't tell Chiang to pull his troops back to Formosa although Quemoy itself was unnecessary for Formosa's defense.

Washington vs. Law

By DAVID LAWRENCE

District of Columbia Has All-Negro Schools

WASHINGTON

Right here in the District of Columbia, the latest official figures show, there are 20 schools which are all - Negro and five schools that are all-white. Does this mean that the "law of the land" is being ignored, or, to borrow a phrase from some of the critics, that the law is being "defied?"

The Supreme Court of the United States in its historic 1954 decision quoted with approval a statement that "segregation of white and colored children in public schools has a detrimental effect upon the colored children."

It cited as one of the "intangible" factors to be considered in providing the Negro student "equality" in education, "his ability to study, to engage in discussions and exchange views with other students."

The court said "such considerations apply with added force to children in grade and high schools."

The argument, of course, is made that the existence of all-white or all-Negro schools here is due not to a deliberate policy of segregation but to the accident of residence in a particular school district.

But this can be readily overcome by providing bus transportation so that children can be taken from one part of the city to another in order to enjoy the benefits of integration as the Supreme Court has decided by seeing to it that Negro and white children everywhere mingle so as to derive the benefits cited by the court in 1954.

Apparently many people in the District of Columbia are objecting even to such desegregation as has occurred. In the last four years there has been a gradual exodus of white children to private schools or to the suburbs in near-by Virginia and Maryland.

The latest official figures show that, in all public schools in the district, the enrollment now is 74.1 per cent Negro — which means 2,434 fewer whites and 5,539 more Negroes than a year ago.

The elementary schools are 78 per cent Negro. The total enrollment of all schools here is 84,650 Negroes and 29,589 whites.

This is an increase of 55,258 Negro pupils and a decrease of 15,228 whites since schools in Washington were "integrated" four years ago.

IF THE THEORY expounded by the Supreme Court of the United States is accepted, education will not be equal until every Negro child has a chance to attend a white school and "to study to engage in discussions and exchange views with other students."

In New York City, several Negro parents are boycotting certain schools which they consider inferior in quality, although "integrated," and are demanding better education through assignment of their children to white schools in other parts of the city irrespective of residence.

They are willing to provide transportation. They are quoting the Supreme Court desegregation decision of 1954 in support of their demands but thus far New York City has refused to redistrict the Negro pupils.

There is some transportation of students out of their regular districts to relieve overcrowding in individual schools, and school authorities state that, where this is necessary, they try whenever possible to achieve integration at the same time but will not transport pupils solely for that purpose.

Negro leaders are asking if this isn't a "defiance" of the "law of the land."

Inside Labor

By Victor Riesel

It is with grim satisfaction that I report there are in our government soldiers and scientists sufficiently wary of the Soviets and sufficiently practical to continue to search for the ultimate weapon — a death ray. But the thing is not to find it accidentally — that one accident we can't afford.

IT COULD happen in any of a thousand laboratories. It could also develop mysteriously in literally tens of thousands of new plants and shops now taming nuclear energy for use like an old-fashioned steam engine.

Almost unnoticed by the public and almost uncounted by management are the plants and construction yards now "putting in" nuclear engines and atomic tools.

By the last count, 8,000 "different types of companies have been licensed for some type of atomic work," according to a report written recently by the leaders of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers.

These plants are increasing with jet speed. Union chiefs interested in the swiftly changing nature of the work for which their followers need to be trained these days, report that the Atomic Energy Commission is spending $3,650,000 for the development of new atomic tools.

This is for equipment which even now is being powered by hand and steam as well as electricity.

THE OTHER DAY some United Auto Workers Union technicians noted that they now have such job classifications as "atomic reactor component mechanic" and "missile pre-flight electronic mechanician."

This, indeed, is the nuclear revolution. And not in a crucible either.

It is far beyond the tender hand that rocks a test tube. It is in the truly calloused hands, for example, of shipyard workers.

Only the other day, John Gronan, leader of the Marine and Shipbuilding Workers Union, urged his followers to keep track of the amount of radiation to which they were being exposed.

Where? In ship construction yards. Some of these already are building atomic reactors for the first ships of the nuclear age fleet.

Soon there will be on the ways of at least one yard, a 40-million-dollar underwater tanker, powered by atomic energy. These submarine freighter surely will replace many of the others.

AND OUTSIDE of Cincinnati, the General Electric Co. has built several atomic aircraft engines. The company merely await word from the Pentagon that fuselages are ready somewhere.

On the land, in the sea and in the air, nuclear power has begun to replace steam and electric power with the inevitability that made the horse only a sideshow to the parimutuel window.

Thus, with the more earthly calling elected now out of the way, labor has called a convention to take stock of this new type of power.

The new group, made up of 14 national member unions of the AFL-CIO's Industrial Union Dept., will meet on Nov. 25.

Its creation was little noticed, though it was pinpointed the other day by Walter Reuther — which means that it will hit the headlines soon enough.

The committee thus far is nameless but it has been told to "study problems created for workers by the increasing use of atomic energy in industry."

This will mark the first intra-union nuclear power party in history. It will be recorded as having met in Washington.

Hadley-Frey Nuptials Held Saturday In Friends Church

The marriage vows of Miss Elaine M. Hadley and John Daniel Frey of Cleveland were heard by the bride's father, the Rev. Larkin J. Hadley, Saturday afternoon in the First Friends Church.

The bride is the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Hadley of Winona, Minn. Frey is the son of Mrs. Hazel Frey of Mount Vernon, O., and the late Daniel Frey.

Assisting with the double ring ceremony was the Rev. Thomas Riley of Winona. The chancel setting featured a large basket of white chrysanthemums, palms, ferns, greenery and twin seven-branched candelabra.

"Always" and "Through The Years" was sung by Paul R. Rohr of Salem, accompanied by Mrs. Harold Winn of Salem.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride was attired in a princess style gown of white silk satin. Alencon lace embroidered with pearls and French passementerie outlined the bateau neckline and extended from the front bodice to the drop waist at the back. Her sleeves were long and fitted to points over her wrists. The skirt was fashioned with a sweep train.

Her fingertip veil of French illusion was attached to a double-tiered queen's crown of lace, embellished with iridescent sequins and pearls. White roses, blue forget-me-nots and white streamers formed her bridal bouquet.

Attending the bride was Mrs. Andy Popick of Cleveland. She appeared in a ballerina-length gown of crystal pink nylon sheer. The fitted bodice featured short cap sleeves and a bateau neckline outlined with pink embroidery motifs. A circular bouffant skirt completed the creation.

She wore a matching face veil attached to a queen's crown trimmed with rhinestones.

She carried an arrangement of pink roses.

VANISHING AMERICAN?

For the sake of your future and the future of your country, let's fervently hope not! But the sad fact is that too many gifted teachers are leaving our colleges for better paying positions.

The cause is fundamental. They simply cannot make ends meet on their present low salaries. And, much as they love their work, they are forced to seek jobs in other fields.

In the face of this discouraging trend, more classrooms keep getting more crowded. And by 1967, college applications are expected to double.

It's time to put a stop to this nonsense. Won't you help? Help the college of your choice now. The returns will be greater than you think.

If you want to know more about what the college crisis means to you, write for a free booklet to: HIGHER EDUCATION, Box 36, Times Square Station, New York 36, New York.

Police

fer of money was made on Nov. 9, the day before the current trial opened at Lisbon. Since the charge was filed in municipal court, the alleged offense apparently took place in East Liverpool.

The prosecutor obtained the affidavit at about 11 a.m. Saturday in municipal court. It was served on Cunningham at his home about 5:35 p.m. by Chief Americo Radetschi.

Cunningham was taken to the police station, where he remained until after his bond had been set by the court and the amount had been posted. A relative arrived at the station with cash, but Cunningham allowed the bond to be posted by the Liberty Bonding Agency of Youngstown, a professional bonding concern.

The charge alleges that Cunningham "with intent to corrupt a juror, or to influence said juror with the respect to the discharge of his duty, before and after being summoned as a juror, promised and offered to give away something of value, to wit: money, contrary to section 2917.05, revised code of Ohio."

In response to another query, the prosecutor said there was no connection between the charge and the alleged attempt of a Lisbon woman to contact a juror last week.

At that time, Mrs. Mable Stuckey of Lisbon, a juror, told the court she was telephoned by Miss Anna Vitalume of Lisbon and questioned concerning the case. Miss Vitalume apologized to the court Friday afternoon.

Meanwhile, failure of a new effort to locate Richey Wallace, Torrington jeweler-pawnbroker sought as a witness in the police burglary trial at Lisbon, forced Prosecutor Brokaw to offer supplementary evidence concerning Wallace's purchase of items stolen from the Burwick Store.

Wallace was to have testified last week in the trial of the ex-officers, but could not be found at his home or store, and the trial was halted Thursday.

A girl employee of Wallace testified this morning he might be found staying with a friend at Barnesville, but Sheriff Russell VanFossen determined Wallace had left Barnesville Friday.

Brokaw then moved to submit evidence concerning Wallace's testimony at a preliminary hearing at East Liverpool in 1956 at which Raimond was charged with entering the store.

City Solicitor Joseph Cooper of East Liverpool testified Wallace, at the preliminary hearing, said he knew Raimond and had purchased some photographic equipment from him.

Arrangements are pending at the Fry Funeral Home.

WHEN THE SAN MARGOS TOOK ITS BEATING — An Army Air Corps biplane flies over the old battleship San Marcos June 22, 1921, as it makes a bombing run over the hulk in Chesapeake Bay near Tangier Island, Va. Hits were made on the ship—June 22, 1921, and July 8, 1921, right—as the San Marcos was used by the late Gen. Billy Mitchell to prove his contention a battleship was vulnerable to aerial bombing. The Navy now is trying to flatten the submerged hulk—a few feet below the surface—which has been the cause of seven shipwrecks.

Guarding Your Health

By DR. EDWIN P. JORDAN

Treating Varicose Veins

Typical of many letters I receive is one from J.M., who writes that his mother suffers from varicose veins which have broken and ulcerated.

This problem with varicose veins either with or without ulceration, is extremely frequent. I should like to begin by explaining what happens.

THE VEINS carry blood to the heart after the tissues have removed oxygen and other substances from the blood. An uninterrupted flow of blood back to the heart and lungs is, therefore, important. Nature ordinarily accomplishes this with great efficiency.

This is aided by the fact that the veins near the surface of the body have folds or valves in them which prevent the blood from flowing backwards. These valves are particularly important in the legs where the pressure of the blood on the veins (because of gravity) is greater than in most parts of the body.

For this reason it is the veins of the leg which are most commonly afflicted by varicosities as a result of the collapse of some of these valves. When the valves are broken, the necessary support to the return of the blood in the veins is lost and the vein becomes swollen. It is these swollen blood veins and ulcers are used. The simplest is the use of elastic bandages or stockings.

Varicose veins may be tied or removed by surgery. Injections for varicose veins have been used for many years. Injections act by closing the opening of the vein entrance so that the blood must flow through some other vein.

In recent years surgery seems to have become more popular as a treatment and injections less so, but they are sometimes used in combination.

The treatment of ulcers is difficult, though several methods are reasonably successful. Prevention of serious swellings or ulcers is wise. This can be done by proper treatment before the varicose veins have become too extensive or lasted too long.

Tidy Work Bench, Repair Kit Essential to Home Handyman

By JOHN O. B. SALLACE
A tidy work bench and an orderly repair kit are essential to the home handy-man. Well tended tools and neatly stored materials are the marks of a careful workman.

Treated with respect, even complex tools give long, trouble-free service. On the other hand, neglected, dull and rusted tools make repair jobs more difficult.

Here's The Answer

By ANDREW C. LANG
QUESTION: I have just had galvanized steel gutters installed on my home. Is it true that I must let them weather for 6 months before painting or wash them with acid if I decide to paint earlier?

ANSWER: If you let them weather for 6 months (some authorities say 3 months) the surface beyond the removal of dirt is necessary before painting. If you want to paint them immediately, the correct primer—according to the National Paint, Varnish and Lacquer Association—is metallic zinc paint, also known as zinc dust-zinc oxide paint. This primer may be left on as the finish coat if you have no objection to the battleship gray color. Otherwise, finish with the desired color of any good exterior paint.

QUESTION — A couple of years ago a small section of the molding of a gilded portrait frame was broken off accidentally. We put the broken part aside, but could not find it when I went to look for it recently. I have tried to rematch the molding without success. One lumber dealer told me it is not standard molding and probably was made to order. What do you suggest?

ANSWER: It is sometimes possible to do a reasonably good job of replacing a small piece of molding with wood putty or plastic wood. Fill in the damaged area with the wood material. Use your fingers or any helpful small tool to shape the filler to conform with the original design. Be sure to do all this before the putty or plastic wood sets too much. You might try it out first with a piece of scrap wood in order to get the knack of it before you work on the frame.

QUESTION: I will be doing some calcining shortly. A friend tells me to be sure not to mix the calcime in a wooden bucket, but he doesn't know the reason. Is this true?

ANSWER: Your friend is right. Calcime is made principally of whiting and glue. When it is mixed in a wooden container, part of the glue is absorbed by the wood. This leaves a white substance with very little binder and consequently will not adhere properly.

Plans for the Asking Speed Construction of Yule Display

Handy men long on ambition and short on artistic ability will welcome plans for Christmas displays now in hand at many lumber and building supply outlets.

Free for the asking, the plans are printed in one, map-size fold-up.

They've been prepared by the manufacturer of a major line of hardboard products.

Figures are presented on graphed layouts which can be called to any desired size by the handy man.

THE SCALING PROCESS and other construction steps are detailed for the user in clear, concise fashion. No gobbledegook.

Additional aids which further reduce work are patterns for some of the figures, which can be traced on the hardboard panels before you take them home.

Plas include: a Nativity scene and instructions for making a manger; carolers, a chorister, a Christmas tree, Santa, reindeer, Santa's helper and other Christ-mas-connected symbols.

ANY OF SEVERAL materials can, of course, be used to make the figures.

The president of the Sliding Glass Door and Window Institute, Frank B. Miller, gives these reasons for the easier operation: "The wheels generally are located right under the center load line instead of off to one side. Aluminum allows greater precision engineering than wood or steel, thus giving freer movement. Hardware is better engineered. And weatherstripping made of wool woven pile contributes to finger-tip control."

Cost of building a display is within reason.

The base material will run you a few dollars, no matter what suitable outdoor-type material you select.

However, prorated over several Christmases, cost is moderate.

ORDINARY woodworking tools are all you need to construct the display units.

It would, of course, speed things if you have a portable jigsaw numbered among your shop tools. Additionally, each set of plans gives hints on lighting how-to and instructions for producing shadow effects.

Readers can get Christmas display plans by writing to:

Brown Sets Record As Cleveland Beats Washington 20-10

Fullback Sets Rushing Mark

Browns First In Eastern Conference

By The Associated Press
Thundering Jimmy Brown, Cleveland's running virtuoso, today had picked one of the National Football League's juiciest plums, was near another, and had propelled the Browns closer to a division championship.

The barreling Cleveland fullback set a season rushing record Sunday as the Browns regained undisputed possession of first place in the Eastern Conference with a 20-10 victory at Washington.

Brown gained 152 yards in 27 tries, totally eclipsing the standard of 1,146 yards set in 12 games by Steve Van Buren of Philadelphia in 1949. The former Syracuse All-American has amassed 1,163 yards in only eight games.

A sophomore in pro ranks, Brown scored twice on short plunges. The Cleveland standout has 17 touchdowmns for the season, one short of Van Buren's record.

Cleveland's triumph, coupled with the 31-10 upset of the New York Giants by Bobby Layne and his Pittsburgh mates, left the Browns on top with a 6-2 record. Runner-up New York is a game back at 5-3.

The race in the Western Conference virtually was broken wide open as Baltimore's second-string quarterback, George Shaw, passed the Colts to a 17-0 triumph over Chicago's Bears. Baltimore, has a 7-1 record for a two-game lead over Chicago and Los Angeles. The Rams tied for the runner-up spot by knocking off Green Bay 20-7.

In other games, halfback Gene Gedman led the way as Detroit pasted San Francisco, 35-21, and Philadelphia easily handled Chicago's Cardinals 49-21.

Brown scored on plunges of one and five yards, but it was a Lou Groza field goal that beat the Redskins. The teams had traded touchdowns and field goals in the first half for a 10-10 tie. With 2:10 remaining in the game, Groza booted a 25-yarder for the victory, although moments later Brown tallied an insurance TD.

After upsetting Cleveland and Baltimore on successive Sundays, the Giants—without halfback Alex Webster and two offensive linemen—were unable to get going against a tough Steelers line. Layne passed for one touchdown, set up another on a 69-yard aerial maneuver and scored twice on short blasts.

Shaw, replacing the injured Johnny Unitas, was spectacular as he made good on 10 of 23 passes for 131 yards. At one point he pitched nine consecutive strikes, six in a 93-yard Col scoring surge in the second period. He had one TD through the air. The Bears, shut out for the first time in 149 games dating back to 1946, were unable to move and found their line perforated by Alan Ameche, who ran for 142 yards and a TD.

Los Angeles moved ahead of the Packers 10-7 by halftime, with a 93-yard pass play from Billy Wade to Jim Phillips giving the Rams the lead. It was the longest pass play in the league this season. Phillips pulled in eight of Wade's tosses for 208 yards. Wade threw for 372 yards on 19 completions in 42 attempts.

Tobin Rote connected for three TD passes, but it was Gedman who brought the Lions their third victory in the last four outings. Gedman aimed his first pass of the season to Howard Cassidy for an 81-yard scoring play and scored twice himself for last year's world champions. The long TD aerial came in the first period, just 40 seconds after San Francisco had taken a 7-0 lead.

Clarence Peaks scored four times as the Eagles ran up their largest point total in four years. Philadelphia broke loose against the Cards for three TDS within 5½ minutes of the second quarter.

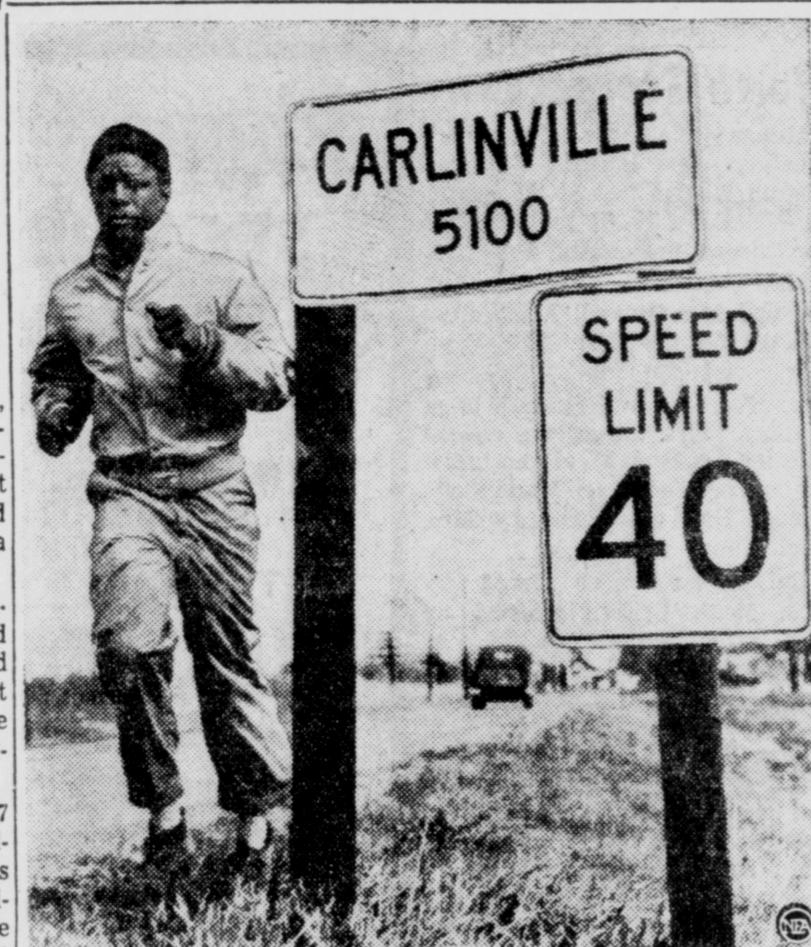

Norm Van Brocklin completed 19 of 29 passes for 318 yards and two touchdowns, one to peaks. Brown's next touchdown will enable him to tie a Cleveland club scoring record of 108 points set by Tackle Lou Groza in 1953.

Groza's second field goal Sunday—a 26-yarder with only 2:10 remaining—broke a tie that had existed through most of the game.

Cleveland scored first on Brown's one-yard plunge. Setting up that touchdown as a 74-yard pass gain, Milt Plum to Preston Carpenter, on the second play after the opening kickoff.

With Pete Brewster free in the end zone, Plum underthrew and Lee Walters intercepted and ran out to the Washington 19. The Redskins moved up to their own 36 from where Ralph Guglielmi shot a long pass to Jim Podolek, who took it in while going full speed near the Browns' 20 and juggled the ball for about five yards as he stumbled to the goal line and slid over.

Early in the second period Sam Baker booted a 35-yard field goal to put Washington ahead 10-7, but Groza evened it with an angle kick from the 10 later in the period. Just before the half Groza

HITTING THE ROAD — Virgil Akins observes the speed limit, but keeps moving in daily, early-morning cross-country jaunts outside of Carlinville, Ill. Akins is preparing to defend the world welterweight championship against Don Jordan in Los Angeles on Dec. 5. Nothing like road work for sound legs.

Sports Sketches

By GORDON ARNDT

One annual custom I would like to see Salem football and basketball teams inaugurate this year would be the naming of an all-opponent team.

I think it would prove interesting because it would give the team's avid followers a chance to compare their own all-foe squad against what the Quakers themselves think.

Not because many other squads do this but it would provide quite an appeal to see what opponents the Quakers thought to be the toughest faced all year.

I could not begin to name an all-opponent line faced by the Salem squad this past football season. However, from having seen all nine Quaker games my two backfields (eight men) that I thought gave the locals the most trouble would be as follows:

First team, Cliff Schmidt of John Marshall, Joel Valko of Canton Timken, Ed Ulmer of Brookfield and Bob Mackall of East Liverpool. The second team would be Al Jackson and Willie Rogers of Youngstown East, Bob Hoge of John Marshall and Bob Osterling of Leetonia.

RUSTY TOMLINSON, park superintendent, voiced opposition to the awarding of a "big" trophy each year to the best lineman. He suggested that a permanent trophy be placed in the trophy case at the high school with a plaque attached to it. Tomlinson said that the name of the outstanding lineman could be inscribed on the trophy each year and that the player himself could receive a small replica of the permanent trophy.

For a third trophy in basketball it is my suggestion that a similar award be set up to be given the season's high scorer. In football only six men of the eleven are in a position to score. As such it wouldn't be fair to the linemen to give such an award. However, in basketball all five players on the floor at the same time have the same equal chance to be the team's high scorer.

I think the presentation of three trophies in each sport would be a good thing for Salem's scholastic athletes. The annual tradition could become as much a part of the local sports scene as its winning football and basketball teams.

There would be no more fitting organization or athletic group to undertake the establishment of the trio of trophies than Salem's own Boosters Club.

SCHMIDT carried the ball 20 times and gained 131 yards against Salem. Valko passed 12 times and connected an on eight for 180 yards while Ulmer picked up 244 yards in 18 carries. Mackall completed 5 of 12 passes for 90 yards and rushed for 125 additional yards in 14 carries while scoring twice.

My nomination for the toughest back faced all year would be Brookfield's Ulmer. The Warriors also I think were the best team Salem played this past season.

Grid mentor Earle Bruce brought up a very interesting point at the Boosters Club meeting last week. He said Salem was never outscored in the second half last season. He was absolutely right.

If the uakers had played but in the third and fourth quarters alone their record would have been 8-0-1. The only blot would have been a 6-6 tie with Marshall. Other scores would have been like this: Ravenna 15-0, Timken 21-0, Brookfield 16-12, Wooster 27-0, Wellsville 27-8, Youngstown East 19-0, East Liverpool 25-20 and Leetonia 7-0.

In the victories over Timken and East the Quakers scored all their points in the second half. The comparative scoring in the third and fourth frames was 163-46 including a lopsided 90-28 in the last period alone.

ANOTHER SUGGESTION I have is in regard to the postseason presentation of trophies to the grid iron and cage teams. I think the amount of trophies presented should be uniform and equal. If three trophies are given the gridiron then three should be given the cagers.

Two trophies which are now awarded in each sport are the most valuable player award and the player with the highest scholastic average which now should be set up on a three-year basis and not four.

In regard to football, Co. C. Bruce suggested to the Boosters that a trophy be awarded the most outstanding lineman. He said made another field goal try from the 48, but it was partly blocked. Interception of a Guglielmi pass by Don Paul set up Brown's six-yard end run to a touchdown in the final seconds of the game.

The Browns' offense against Washington was somewhat different from that of previous games. Plum passed more, hitting on 12 of 27 for 193 yards. And Bobby Mitchell, the league's runnerup to Brown in rushing yardage was on the bench while Lew Carpenter took the left halfback spot.

Havana Tourney Won by Bayer

Beats Sam Snead In Golf Event

HAVINA (AP) — Now that George Bayer is harnessing his mighty power, he is threatening to become one of the great all-time attractions of golf, as say, Sam Snead.

People love a slugger. They made Babe Ruth an idol in baseball and Jack Dempsey one in boxing. For years they have flocked to watch Snead, the graceful, prodigious fairway slammer from West Virginia.

Now comes Bayer, a fantastic giant of a man who stands 6-5 and hits the ball farther than any man has hit one before.

The titanic former football tackle from the University of Washington won a dramatic sudden death playoff from Snead Sunday for the $6,500 top prize in the Havana International Golf Tournament.

Bayer was in with a 72-hole score of 236 when Snead came to the 18th needing only a five-foot putt to take first prize.

"He'll blow it," said a golfing friend to Bayer.

"Not a chance—he'll make it," said Bayer gloomily.

Snead stroked and missed and the tournament went into an extra-hole playoff. "I'll get him now," said Bayer.

And he did. Throwing all his power into the tee shot, the San Gabriel, Calif., giant almost drove the length of the 374-yard par four extra hole, but the ball landed in a trap in front of the green. Snead's drive was 40 to 50 yards shorter.

Muscular Bayer blasted out within 10 feet of the cup and putted cautiously for his par four. Snead pitched 45 feet short of the cup and then three putted after going seven feet past the pin in a bold try.

Thus Bayer, known more as a hitter than a winner won his second big prize since turning pro five years ago—and collected the biggest purse of his career.

Doug Ford of Yonkers, N.Y., finished third at 231, followed by Bill Casper, Chulavista, Calif., at 232, and Julius Boros of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., with 233.

Ernie Vossler, Fort Worth; Tony Lema of San Leandro, Calif., and Ed Oliver of Denver tied at 294.

Volleyball Groups

Will Meet on Tuesday

All city league volleyball team representatives are asked to meet in the Memorial Building Tuesday at 7 p.m.

John Dawson, assistant Memorial Building manager, reports that only two teams have submitted entry blanks so far. He said the tentative starting date for the league is Dec. 2.

Bucks End Season Campaign Saturday Against Wolverines

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio State's rebounding Bucks wind up their campaign Saturday against their most revered foe—the Wolverines of Michigan.

After fighting back from the brink of what could have been their most disastrous campaign in years with their most scintillating conquest of several seasons, these Bucks are ready to bring the curtain down with a flourish.

Saturday's 38-28 verdict over Iowa's new Big Ten champions and Rose Bowl delegates goes into the record books as one of the finest fashioned by the Bucks in a long time. Scoreless in their last two attempts at Iowa City, the protégés of Coach Woody Hayes erased all semblance of a jinx in the tall corn country.

Michigan comes to town with a not - too-fashionable record, the usually snarling Wolverines having won only two of eight starts—by identical scores of 20-19 over Southern Cal and Minnesota. Saturday they were beaten 8-6 by Indiana—a team swamped 49-8 by Ohio.

In 54 previous games with Michigan, Ohio has won 16, lost 34 and tied 4 for a .333 percentage—but the Bucks figure to make it 17 wins in Saturday's fray before some 83,000 fans.

This could be a "let's win one for Bennie" game so far as Michigan is concerned, because Bennie Oosterbaan, the Wolverine mentor, will be winding up his coaching career. Even that incentive, and the natural rivalry of the two honored foes, do not appear big enough to sway the balance much.

The Michiganders have given up 191 points while scoring 118 in eight games, while Ohio has counted 162 and allowed 118. How the leaky defense can contain the likes of Fullback Bob White and Halfback Don Clark is something Oosterbaan will have to figure out as he bids the gridiron game goodbye.

White rolled for 206 yards in 33 carries against Iowa, scoring three touchdowns. Almost duplicating his feat of 1957 against Iowa when he carried seven of eight times in a 68-yard drive for the score which gave the Bucks the conference crown and the Rose Bowl trip. White hauled the ball on 11 of 14 occasions in the 80-yard march which broke a 28-28 tie in the final period.

For the season he's carried 194 times for 778 yards. His 194 bangs at the line erased the school record of 187 in 10 games set in 1942 by Gene Fekete, now a Buckeye.

THE FAMILY of Sigmund Stobbe would like to express our sincere and heartfelt thanks to friends, neighbors, Rev. C. O. Armstrong and the Henry Funeral Home for the kindness and sympathy shown to us during our recent time of sorrow.

The Knicks have their longest string in five years after Sunday's sloppy 98-90 job against Minneapolis.

Saturday night, the Knicks knocked over Syracuse, the run-up in the Eastern Division, 96-92; while Philadelphia spilled the Lakers 106-101. St. Louis defeated Detroit 102-91 and Boston rapped Cincinnati 130-105.

The Knicks lead by two games in the Eastern Division. St. Louis has a 2½-game spread over Detroit in the Western Division.

The Knick-Laker game had both clubs guilty of walking infractions, pushing and even kicking the ball.

The Knicks, who have won eight of nine this season, blew a 12-lead, scrambled for a 46-46 tie at the half, then built a 66-56 lead and almost blew that margin.

New York's Charlie Tyra was the high scorer with 22 points. Kenny Sears, the Knicks' scoring star who had averaged 24.2 points a game, needed three stiches to close an eye cut opened by Laker rookie Elgin Baylor's finger nail.

Baylor led the Lakers with 18 points.
